

FACILITATOR

Do you love talking to people, sharing your knowledge, or leading crafts and activities? Facilitators assist with tours, birthday parties, crafts, and events; helping the public explore the cultural, environmental and economic importance of the Fraser River.

What You'll Need:

- Dedication
- Good Communication & Time Management Skills
- To be 15 years old or more
- An interest in working with children and adults
- Criminal Record Check (any fees are reimbursed)
- A willingness to learn- no experience required!

Good to Know:

- Most facilitator opportunities are on weekends
- You will be provided with training and a chance to observe our other like-minded volunteers and staff
- You will gain strong leadership skills and experience working with children and members of the public in a fun environment!
