

Fraser River Hall of Fame

NOMINATION FORM

The Fraser River Discovery Centre Society (FRDC) established the Fraser River Hall of Fame in October 1991 to recognize and honour an individual or organization that has made significant and noteworthy contributions to the health and sustainability of the Fraser River, its culture, people, industry, and environment. The contribution may be in the field of community leadership, business and economic development, labour, industry, volunteer service, research, culture, and arts.

Federal, Provincial and Municipal elected officials are not eligible for nomination while they are in office.

Any two persons or organizations may nominate individuals or organizations resident in British Columbia and the Fraser River basin for the Fraser River Hall of Fame. A person may be appointed to the Hall of Fame posthumously if nominated by the FRDC Nominating and Membership Committee.

The information on this form is collected under the authority of the Fraser River Discovery Centre Society. The information collected will help the Society to assess the eligibility of nominees to the Fraser River Hall of Fame. If you have any questions about the collection, use, or disclosure of this information, please contact the Chair of the FRDC's Nominations Committee at 604-521-8401.

Nominations and letters of support must be received by 4:00 pm July 31 to be considered for the award in that calendar year. Nominations received after that date will be included in the selection process for the next year's award.

Note: the onus is on the nominators to ensure that all nominations are complete and the nominators have submitted letters of support by the deadline date. All material we receive will be kept confidential but may be disclosed to the nominee if requested.*
